CIVIC HOSPITALIPIES TO THE OFFICERS OF THE SPANISH GUNBOATS. - A communication was received yesterday by Mayor Pillsbury, from Senor de Moncada, the Spanish Consul, asking him to receive the officers of the fleet of Spanish gunboats now in our harbor. Half-past two o'clock was designated. At that hour the Spanish Consul, accompanied by Commodore Casariego and Captains Tragua, Pinegro and Lagunilla, called upon the Mayor at his chamber. Aldermen Barrow, Collins, Voigt, Canningham, Geddings and Hampton represented the Council. Dr. Lebby, the health officer; Messrs. Thomas and Whilder treasurer and assistant treasurer; P. J. Coo gan and M. G. Camplin, appraiser and assistant; the City Sheriff and the City Attorney were als present, and united in tendering to the guests the hospitalities of the city. The visitors were shown the paintings and other objects of interest in the Council Chamber, and after a pleasing interchange of courtesies, an adjournment was called to the clerk's office, where a collation was spread by Roberts, the caterer of Connell. The health of the Spanish officers was quaffed in champagne, and toasts were offered expressive of the entente cordiale existing between the authori-

A visit was subsequently paid to the Collector of the Port, and in the evening the naval visitors attended the Academy of Music. The health offi cer has kindly extended to the Spanish fleet the use of the city hospitals in case any emergency should arise. Only two of the officers present a the interview could speak English, but they were all acquainted with American history, and examined the portraits of General Washington in Council Chamber with great interest. They expressed pleasure at their reception in Charleston which they regarded as one of the historic cities of the world, and dwelt upon the prominent part she had sustained in the late war.

The frigate Pizarro and four additional gunboats are hourly expected, and it is not improfor the entire fleet, as the vessels now in port will remain for three or four days.

CROMBS. The following officers have been closted to serve in the Shaw Post, No. 1, of the G. A. R., of this State: N. K. Reed, commander; George N. Little, senior vice; John Daly, ji nio vice; W. II. Hoyt, adjutant, and C. II. Smeeds, Alderman Hamnton fell a victim to the wiles of the spirit last night, and grew eloquent over Re-publicanism during the session of Council. The attention of liquor-dealers is directed to REGULAR MEETING OF THE CITY Present—the Mayor, Aldermen Geddings, Potter, Cunningham, Voigt, Collins, Barrow, Greene, Holloway, Small, Brown, L. F. Wall, court at Charleston.

The meeting was called to order at ten minutes to 8 o'clock, and the proceedings of the las meeting read by the clerk and confirmed. A petition was read from the wharf owners o the several wharves in the city, praying for the use of the city lamps on their property or moonlight

A petition from the city physicians setting forth their ardnows duties and inadequate pay, and asking an increase of compensation. Alderman Collins made an appeal for the petition, and was replied to by Aldermea Geddings, Cunningham and Small, and ofter a long debate the petition was referred to the Committee on Retrenchmen

The petition of J. C. II. Claussen was refer the Committee on Streets.

The petition of the taxpayers of Ward No. 5 for additional lights was referred to the Commit tee on Lighting the Streets.

Alderman Greene reported favorably on the pe-titlen of the Ashley, Comet and Star fire companies to purchase their machines. Accepted. Also on the petition of John W. Hall for junk shop icense. Accepted.

Alderman Greene also presented the followin

Adderman Greene also presented the helicity report:

The committee to whom was referred the petition of John T. Ford, Esq., lessee and manager of the Academy of Music, respectfully report as follows: Finding that the ordinance of 1898 gives the City Council discretionary powers in the matter, your committee have given a great deal of consideration to the matter, and find that the owner of the balleling has evinced a great deal of enterprise and public spirit, and has given to Charleston a building for public entertainments which few expected to see for years to come. The lessee and manager has also exhibited much commendable enterprise and energy, and has introduced recently in this city some of the first, artists on this continent, thereby offering inducements to strangers to visit the city. Your committee, therefore, respectfully recommend that the Mayor be authorized to perint Mr. Ford to continue his theatrical entertainments at the Academy of Music upon the payment to the city of ten dollars per week while giving those entertainments.

M. Brown,

A misunderstanding arose between some mem-ers of Council as to the nature of the report, but on hearing the petition read the report was

and L. F. Wall voting no:

The committee to whom was referred the resolution of Alderman Barrow, at the last meeting of Council, beg leave to report that, having examined the matter carefully, they find that it is not in the power of the Mayor to impose a fine greater than $100, and that if the resolution was adopted by Council, it would be inoperative. Your committee therefore beg to be relieved from the further consideration of the subject, and be discharged.

Alderman Goddings, from the Committee on Accounts, reported favorably on sundry bills against the city. Adopted.

Alderman Holloway, from the Committee on Brick and Wooden Buildings, reported favorably on the petition of Lord. Adopted. Alderman Voigt, from the Committee on City ands, recommended the renewal of leases to the Camplin, J. P. Schirmer and B. M. Forgartie; the leases to be extended for a period of ten years. Also, the renewal of the leases of water lots to E. M. Brodie, Courtenay & Treubolm and H. T. Street, for a term of five years.

Aldermen Collins and Barrow opposed the report and advocated the advertisement of the lands in the public prints, so that all persons could bid for the leases, and not make a monopoly of the leases of the city lands by certain parties who had heretofore occupied them.

Alderman Voigt explained that the prices asked for these leases had been largely increased. The tenants had improved the property, and it was thought only justice to allow them to retain possession of these city lands.

On motion, the report was referred back to the committee. The Committee on Steam Engines reported fa-orably on the petitions of James Adger & Co. and J. C. Jacobs. Adopted. The petition of Messrs. Willcox, Gibbes & Co., to erect a steam engine, was referred to the Com mittee on Steam Engines. Alderman Cunningham, from the Committee of Ways and Means, presented a bill regulating licenses, which was ordered to be printed, and Council adjourned to meet on Thursday evening

Charleston, December 27, 1809.

The committee appointed to investigate the irregularities existing in the shipping business, beg to report:

That they have received several communications from respectable merchants and masters of essels, which satisfy your committee as to the existence of the following irregularities:

1. Masters of vessels entering portuned by the pilots to consign their vessels to parties from whom said pilots are reported to receive a monied consideration.

2. It is further represented that by the influence of said-pilots several respectable shipping houses have feat the consignment of vessels which the captalus had originally intended placing in their charge.

captains had originally intended placing in their charge.

3. Vessels have been published in the daily papers, as being consigned to certain merchants in this city, without the consent and in violation of the wishes of the masters of said vessels; and against this unwarrantable interference the masters have made serious complaint to this Chamber through your committee.

4. Merchandlse has been turned from its legitimate consignment by the undignified and unusual solicitations of members of this Chamber.

5. Vessels have been taken from one wharf and influenced to another by the interference of certain merchants in the most unjustiliable manner. Your committee respectfully recommend that this Chamber convey its censure of the above irregularities by the adoption of the following resolution.

Resolved, That the Charleston Chamber of Comnerce condemns in the most unqualified terms Resolved, That the Charleston Chamber of Commerce condemns in the most unqualified terms any act on the part of any member of the Chamber, or any merchant of this city, to accure business legitimately consigned to another, or to induce the consignment of vessels or merchandise, by any arrangement with pilots, or otherwise, in the representation of the superior advantages of one firm over another, in the transaction of business; such a course seeming derogatory to the high character that should ever be the atlandard of merchants, who have the ambition to sustain the diguity and self-respect of the business community, of which they form a part.
